

South Asian Glamour Exhibition 2011

Further Our Cooperation, Taste the Beauty

INVITATION

June 12-15, 2011

Chengdu, China

Preface

South Asia ( Afghanistan, Bangladesh, Bhutan, India, Maldives, Nepal, Pakistan and Sri Lanka) covers an area of 4 million sq.m., home to 1.4 billion people. It is one of China's most important trading partners among neighboring regions. Vibrant development, rapid expansion, powerful trade growth could not be enough to describe the current economic cooperation between China and South Asia.

Sichuan province situated in Southwest China, on the upper reaches of Yangtze River, is a vital commodity distribution center in west. Sichuan is a critical junction and transportation corridor connecting the south and the middle, the southwest and the northwest , linking with central and southeast Asia and other pan-Asian regions. Date back to over 2000 years ago, the ancient Silk Road perfectly testify frequent trade exchanges between two-side businessmen.

Supported by Sichuan Government, Embassies/Consulates of South Asian countries, South Asian Chambers of Commerce & Industry, South Asian Glamour Exhibition 2011 will be held in Chengdu from June 12-15, with a view to promote economic interaction between Sichuan and South Asia countries, build a stage to complement each other's advantages, improve the imbalance situation,
